Description

Mixed ability rugby encourages social inclusion by mixing able bodied volunteers and coaches who act as facilitators to support players on the pitch. Mixed ability rugby is not about classifying levels of ability and separating participants into tier groups. As a Foundation we believe the focus of mixed ability rugby is to emphasis rugby as an inclusive sport for all players. The only difference with mixed ability rugby from everyday rugby is scrums are uncontested; this is the only rule change to the game of rugby.
