About the Service

About the Organisation

The aims of this forum are to:

Support individuals who self harm to reduce emotional distress and improve their quality of life.

Support and provide information for family and carers of individuals who self harm.

Raise awareness of the needs of people who self harm, dispel myths and combat discrimination.

Empower and enable those that self harm to seek alternatives to self harm and further help where appropriate.

The forum provides crisis support, information and resources, advice, discussions and distractions. Closely monitored, available 24/7
